On the heels of their successful 2011 initiative, German Films and the German Federal Film Board (FFA) present the second edition of their joint short film program NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER. The program combines this year’s SHORT TIGER prize-winners (best German shorts under 5 minutes) and NEXT GENERATION, the most remarkable works under 15 minutes directed by students at German film schools. International audiences at the 2012 Cannes premiere and ensuing screenings during the worldwide tour can expect a selection of 13 exceptional and wide-ranging films that exhibit a wealth of creativity and a variety of narrative forms.

NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER aims to reinstate short film to its rightful place as an independent art form and entertainment genre – on the big screen and in the awareness of audiences. German Films and the FFA invite you to discover new film trends and young talent in their early incarnation. Please join us on a journey through different genres, subjects and perspectives! If you share our enthusiasm, we ask you to help us spread the word: the program will be available after Cannes for screenings at international festivals and film events throughout the year.

PLEASE COME AND ENJOY!

The films for NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER 2012 were chosen by a jury of experts consisting of actress-director Nicolette Krebitz, Alexandra Gramatke (KurzFilmAgentur Hamburg) and Dr. Gregory Theile (Kinopolis/Theile Group). The Next Generation student films were selected from a total of 77 submissions from 22 film schools; to be eligible the films had to be 15 minutes or under and completed by students in the year 2011. An additional 51 films were submitted to the Short Tiger competition. The conditions of entry for these films were suitability for theatrical release and a maximum running time of 5 minutes.

CHICA XX MUJER accompanies a girl in Venezuela on her way to becoming a woman. In a country with one of the world’s highest amounts of cosmetic surgery and “Miss Universe”-winners, this process is no longer a natural one. On her 15th birthday, Génesis wants to be celebrated like a princess, but for that she has to bear painful preparations. In an associative way we experience the different areas of the Venezuelan society. In a rhythmic observation we see how role models are not only being lived, but also being broken.

Isabell Šuba was born in 1981 in Berlin. From 2001-2003 she studied Media Arts Design in Berlin. In 2005, she started studying Directing at the University of Film and Television “Konrad Wolf” (HFF/B) in Potsdam.
