In 2018, German Films and the German Federal Film Board (FFA) combine their forces again to present a new edition of the short film program NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER to audiences around the world. The traditional talent showcase premieres the most remarkable student shorts – the NEXT GENERATION of German Cinema – together with the best German shorts under 5 minutes – the winners of the FFA’s SHORT TIGER Award. This year, an expert jury selected twelve short films that represent a wide diversity of forms, genres, subjects and skillful filmmaking that international audiences have come to expect from German shorts.

With NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER 2018, German Films and the FFA invite you to discover promising talents and new film trends early on. The filmmakers scan deeply under the surface of current social topics, but in the end they always find some kind of hope. Their stories are deeply personal as well as very universal, told from different angles and in a variety of styles. Once more this program confirms that short film is an independent art form deserving of the big screen and the awareness of audiences. We hope you share our enthusiasm and help us spread the word: the program will be available after Cannes for screenings at international festivals and film events throughout the year.

PLEASE COME AND ENJOY!

The films for NEXT GENERATION SHORT TIGER 2018 were selected by an expert jury: Student Academy Award®-winner and Academy Award®-nominee Katja Benrath (WATU WOTE – ALL OF US), Daniel Ebner (Artistic Director VIS Vienna Shorts Festival) and Dr. Gregory Theile (Kinopolis/Theile Group). The NEXT GENERATION student films were selected from a total of 105 submissions from 17 film schools; to be eligible the films had to be 15 minutes or under and completed at German film schools in 2017 or 2018. An additional 59 films were submitted to the SHORT TIGER competition; the conditions of entry for these films were suitability for theatrical release and a maximum running time of 5 minutes.

As a child, Carlotta didn’t expect the people around her to have faces. She doesn’t even recognize her own face. Years later, she learns about a rare, untreatable deficit in her brain. It was art, after all, that offered her a way to finally recognize herself.

VALENTIN RIEDL is a physician and neuroscientist. In videos of brain scans, he searches for patterns of neuron activity. He also uses images to assemble them into narrative films. He directed BURNED SOIL (short, 2012) and produced TWELFTH NIGHT (2014), both successful at many international festivals. He is currently developing his debut feature documentary that will merge Carlotta’s point-of-view with neuroscientific spheres.

FRÉDÉRIC SCHULD studied at the Academy of Media Arts Cologne (KHM). He founded the animation studio Fabian&Fred together with Fabian Driehorst in 2011. He mainly works as a director and animator on short films, animation and documentaries. His animated short films include THE CHIMNEY (2018) and CARLOTTA’S FACE (2018).

A woman has a car accident and is trapped next to a busy highway in the car wreck. Her serious injuries are causing her to gradually bleed to death, and the cold turns into one of her biggest enemies during her desperate search for help. With all her strength she tries to attract attention and not lose her hope for salvation, but finally she finds a note that portrays her fate in a completely different light.

LUKAS BAIER, born in 1984 in Munich, studied Communication Sciences and Philosophy in Salzburg. Since 2012, he has been studying Directing at the University of Television and Film Munich (HFF). His short films include FEAR (2004), CHRISTOPHORUS (2012), RENATE (2013), VISH (2014), and EGO (2018).
Is it possible to regain one’s natural appearance using an artificial object? Can a face be completed by the use of an inanimate object – an eye that does not blink or a nose that cannot be wrinkled? And will this object become a natural extension of a person’s body some day? A synthetic illusion that connects three women and explores the desire to be whole again.

REBECCA ZEHR studied Cultural Anthropology in Munich and worked for international film festivals in Ecuador for several years. In 2009, she co-directed the short documentary 4 WÄNDE, 2 ACHSEN. Since 2016, she has been studying Documentary Directing at the University of Television and Film Munich (HFF).
